

ABA PROMOTIONS

Philip Chen AIA, President of Ann Beha Architects, has announced the promotions of Elizabeth Nassikas and Kathleen Gerner AIA to Senior Associate.

Elizabeth Nassikas has been named Senior Associate of Practice Management, providing oversight of firm and business operations. With a Master's Degree in Business Administration and more than 18 years of experience with business operations, Elizabeth brings particular strengths in firm management to ABA's practice.

Joining ABA in 2011, Katie Gerner is a Senior Project Manager, leading ABA's expansion and renewal of the US Embassy in Athens Greece; the award winning Saieh Hall for Economics at the University of Chicago and currently, the School of Education expansion at the University of Pennsylvania. Her contributions to ABA include her project management and design skills, mentoring, and technical leadership.

ABA congratulates these talented and dedicated leaders!
